2021 GUIDELINES

Online application open: March 1, 2021

Deadline to apply: March 31, 2021, 11:59pm

Awards announced by: April 30, 2021

Overview

Up Street Music Patrons collegiate scholarship fund was created to celebrate and support the continued educational of Sonoma County High School seniors who will pursue a four-year degree in a music discipline at an accredited college or university.

Eligibility Criteria

If applicants have any questions about eligibility, selection criteria, auditions, or regarding any of the following requirements, we encourage contacting Up Street Music Patrons to discuss this information before applying.

Applicants must:

- Currently be in 12th grade, attending a High School within Sonoma County
- Maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.75 or higher
- Have applied to, and been accepted, and plan to attend an accredited college or university under a music major
- Complete and submit the online application between Feb 1 and Feb 29, 2020, including supporting documents

Application Review Criteria

The following criteria will be used to evaluate each application for audition selection:

- Meets school and GPA eligibility criteria
- Thoroughness of application completion, including supporting documents

Audition Criteria

Due to covid-19 our audition process will be by video this year:

Applicants must submit two video links at time of application:

- Two videos that showcase two different aspects or styles of applicant's performance ability

Audition participants will be evaluated on musicianship, knowledge of basic music theory, and criteria specific to the particular music major they will pursue. (For example, a student who will pursue a major in vocal performance will be evaluated on vocal quality and stage presence.)

Scholarship Awards

Recipients will receive the following cash and services:

- $300 to $500 cash scholarship award
- Up to two hours of one-on-one coaching time with professional experts in the areas that align with the recipient's major

Restrictions

Scholarship dollars may only be used for expenses directly related to college activities:

- Orientation fees
- Tuition
- Books required for coursework
